1.2. Format of Tender Response

Letter of Transmittal Each Tenderer MUST provide a formal letter of transmittal that should:

1.2.1. Be signed by an authorized representative of the organization and must state that the signing official is authorized to legally bind the organization; include the names, titles, office addresses and office telephone numbers of the persons authorized by the organization to conduct negotiations, including their expected roles in negotiations and in performance of any resulting Agreement.

1.2.2. Provide a contact name, address, facsimile number and email address which the Legal Aid Commission will use in serving notices to the Tenderer.

1.2.3. Tenders submitted without a signed letter of transmittal will be excluded from further consideration after the initial tender responsiveness analysis.

1.3. Late Tenders

Any Tender lodged "AFTER" the closing time will be deemed to be late and unacceptable.

1.4. Unconditional Offers

Tenderers are required to:

Make their best unconditional offers on submission of their Tender; and Obtain any necessary Legal Aid Commission approvals, consents or authorizations to enable them to execute the Agreement and any related documents on an unconditional basis.

1.5. Amendment of RFT

The Fijian Legal Aid Commission may, at their sole and absolute discretion, vary, add to, or amend the terms of this RFT, including the nature and/or scope of the leasing services required under this RFT; and any other subject matter to which this RFT relates.

1.6. Termination of RFT

The Fijian Legal Aid Commission may, at their sole and absolute discretion, suspend, terminate or abandon part or the whole of this RFT, at any time prior to the execution of a formal written agreement acceptable to the parties involved, by an authorized officer of Legal Aid Commission and by the Successful Tenderer/s, by giving written notice of such a decision to each of the registered Tenderers.

1.7. Accuracy of Information

The information contained in this RFT and the information upon which it was based has not been independently verified or audited.

The Legal Aid Commission, their officers, employees, advisers and agents make no express or implied representation or warranty that:

The information in this RFT, or any information provided to Tenderers during any other phase of the tendering process, is or will be accurate, current or complete; or Any estimate or forecast will be achieved, or that any statement as to future matters will necessarily be correct.

If a Tenderer finds any error, discrepancy, ambiguity, inconsistency, omission or other error in this RFT or any other information given by the Fijian Legal Aid Commission, the Tenderer must promptly notify Legal Aid Commission in writing.

Tender responses which contain alterations or erasures, or Tenders which are illegible at the time of lodgment, may, at the sole and absolute discretion of the Legal Aid Commission agencies, be excluded from further consideration.

1.8. Tenderers to Inform Themselves

Each Tenderer should:

Examine this RFT, and documents referred to in the RFT and any other information made available by Legal Aid Commission to Tenderers;
Obtain any further information about the facts, risks and other circumstances relevant to its Tender by making all lawful inquiries; and Satisfy itself that its Tender, and all information on which its Tender is based, is true, accurate and complete.

By submitting their Tenders, Tenderers will be deemed to have:

examined the RFT and any other information made available in writing by the Fijian Legal Aid Commission to Tenderers for the purpose of tendering; examined all information relevant to the risks, contingencies, and other circumstances having an effect on their Tender and which is obtainable by the making of reasonable inquiries; and satisfied themselves as to the correctness and sufficiency of their Tenders and that their prices cover the cost of complying with the RFT requirements and of all matters and things necessary for the due and proper performance and completion of the work described in the RFT.

1.9. Questions about this RFT

Questions pertinent to an understanding or clarification of this RFT must be submitted to tenders@legalaid.org.fj

1.10. No Reliance by Tenderers on Representations

Tenderer must not rely on any oral or written representation, statement or arrangement, or any other conduct, as changing the conditions of this RFT, except for any change of which Legal Aid Commission notifies a Tenderer in writing and specifies is a change to the RFT.

The Fijian Legal Aid Commission, their officers, employees, advisers and agents:

Expressly disclaim any and all liability arising from information (including without limitation, errors or omissions) contained in this RFT;

Accept no responsibility arising in any way from errors in, or omissions from, this RFT, or in negligence (except so far as liability under any statute cannot be excluded);

Accept no liability for any loss or damage suffered by any person as a result of that person or any other person placing any reliance on the contents of this RFT or other information provided by or on behalf of the Legal Aid Commission; and

Assume no duty of disclosure or fiduciary duty to any interested party.

1.11. Tenderer's Risk

A Tenderer's participation in any stage of the Tender process is at the Tenderer's sole risk, cost and expense, in particular, all costs incurred by or on behalf of the Tenderers in relation to this RFT, including preparing and lodging the Tender and providing Legal Aid Commission with any further information are wholly the responsibility of the Tenderer.

The Legal Aid Commission accepts no responsibility, liability, or obligation whatsoever for costs incurred by or on behalf of any Tenderer in connection with any Tender or any participation in the Tender process.

1.12. Other Rights

The Fijian Legal Aid Commission has no obligation:

To consider and/or accept the lowest priced Tender or any Tender regardless of its compliance or non-compliance with the RFT; or

As to the manner, timing or the basis of the consideration of a Tender. The Fijian Legal Aid Commission may consider and/or accept any Tender regardless of its compliance or non-compliance with the RFT. The Legal Aid Commission through LEGAL AID COMMISSION reserves, at their sole and absolute discretion, the right to:

- Negotiate with one or more Tenderers during the Evaluation stage;
- Call for new Tenders;
- Alter, amend or vary the terms of the draft Agreement at any time including, without limitation, during negotiations; and/or
- Enter into several separate Agreements with different Tenderers or other parties for the supply of individual services required under this RFT.

1.13. No Legal Obligation

No legal obligation or agreement whatsoever is intended to be or is created between the Fijian Legal Aid Commission and the Tenderers, or any one of them, by virtue of the Tender process (including but not limited to statements contained in this RFT) unless and until Agreement negotiations are completed and a formal written Agreement (or Agreements) acceptable to LEGAL AID COMMISSION is entered into and executed by an authorized officer of the Legal Aid Commission and the Successful Tenderer/s.

1.14. Supporting Material

Supporting material is material additional to the Tender which elaborates on or clarifies the Tender but does not alter it in any material respect. Supporting material which effectively alters the Tender in any material respect will not be accepted. Supporting material which does not effectively alter the Tender in any material respect may be provided at the initiative of the Tenderer or at the request of Legal Aid Commission.

Supporting material must be lodged on or before the closing date unless specifically requested by the Legal Aid Commission subsequent to that date. The Legal Aid Commission will disregard any unsolicited supporting material dispatched after this date.

1.15. Clarification and Variation of Tenders

Legal Aid Commission may, at their absolute discretion seek clarification or request further information from Tenderers after the closing date for the submission of Tenders.

Each Tenderer must nominate a person to provide additional information or answer specific questions that may arise during the selection process as required by Legal Aid Commission.

Tenderers whose Tenders have been short listed may be required, to engage in formal discussions with the Legal Aid Commission, facilitate site visits at their own cost or make presentations to the Fijian Legal Aid Commission on their Tenders. In such an event, LEGAL AID COMMISSION will make the necessary arrangements with Tenderers.

1.16. Ownership of Documents

This RFT is the property of LEGAL AID COMMISSION. The Tenderer will return the RFT to the Legal Aid Commission on request.

Copyright in this RFT is owned by the Fijian Legal Aid Commission. All rights are reserved. No part of this RFT may be reproduced or adapted in any form by any means without the written permission of the Fijian Legal Aid Commission.

Without affecting any intellectual property rights which may exist in a Tender, all Tender documents become the property of the Fijian Legal Aid Commission on their submission and Legal Aid Commission agencies may copy or use them as it sees fit including for any purpose necessary or ancillary to the RFT process or the Agreement, its performance or administration.

1.17. Preferred Tenderer Selection

Neither the lowest priced Tenders, nor any Tenders, will necessarily be selected by the Legal Aid Commission as the Preferred Tender/s.

The LEGAL AID COMMISSION may decide not to accept any Tender or reject all Tenders at any time. The Fijian Legal Aid Commission reserves the right to cancel this RFT and pursue an alternative course of action at any time.

A Tenderer will not be deemed to have been selected as one of the Preferred Tenderer/s unless and until notice in writing for and on behalf of the Fijian Legal Aid Commission of such selection is:

Handed to the Tenderer; or

Is sent by prepaid post to or is left at the address stated in the Tender for service of notices; or

Sent by facsimile to the number provided by the Tenderer, followed by an original by post.

Selection of Preferred Tenderer/s will not represent acceptance of the Tender/s and no binding relationship will exist between the Preferred Tenderer/s and the Fijian Legal Aid Commission until a written agreement acceptable by all relevant Legal Aid Commission agencies is executed on behalf of the Fijian Legal Aid Commission by an authorized officer of Legal Aid Commission and the Successful Tenderer/s.

1.18. Security, Privacy and Confidentiality

A Tenderer, and its officers, employees, agents and advisers, must comply with any security clearance checks and procedures required by the Legal Aid Commission.

Each Tenderer must ensure that its officers, employees, agents, subcontractors or advisers involved in the Tender process do not either directly or indirectly record, divulge or communicate to any person any information concerning the affairs of the Legal Aid Commission, including any information relating to this Tender process.

Tenderers and their officers, employees, agents, subcontractors and advisers must not take steps to obtain, or use, confidential information of Legal Aid Commission other than information which is publicly available or made available by Legal Aid Commission to Tenderers during the Tender process.

During the RFT process no employee, agent or representative of any Tenderer will make available or discuss its Tender response with the press, any elected or appointed official or officer of the Fijian Legal Aid Commission or any employee, agent or representative of the Legal Aid Commission unless specifically authorized to do so in writing by the LEGAL AID COMMISSION. If this provision is breached, LEGAL AID COMMISSION, may exclude that Tenderer from this Tender process.

By submitting a Tender, the Tenderer acknowledges and consents to the Legal Aid Commission disclosing any information provided by the Tenderer, whether confidential or not, if:

That disclosure is required by law;
